

What is the most important principle that we want to learn as a family this summer?

What else would we like to to learn?

How can we try to learn these principles?

What else needs to happen this summer?

After prayer, study, pondering, discussion, and more prayer, what inspiration has come?